

BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Milena Kostić, Assistant Professor

Dr. Milena Kostić was born on March 19, 1976. in Niš, where she lives and works. She attended the Faculty of Medicine, Department of Dentistry and she graduated in 2001, with an average grade of 9.95, as the best student of the University of Niš for the school year 2000/2001. as a laureate of the Silver University Logo reward. After graduating, she applied postgraduate studies at the Faculty of Medicine in Nis in 2001, where she passed all the exams with grade 10. She completed a mandatory one-year medical service at the Clinic for Dentistry in Niš, after which she passed the professional exam in 2002 . In the same year, she enrolled in specialist studies in the field of Dental Prosthetics. She passed the Specialist Exam in January 2007 with great success.

Her magisterial thesis titled "The study of the effects of acrylate materials on the basis of the plate dental prosthesis on cellular viability and growth in vitro " was finished at the Medical Faculty of the University of Niš in October 2008. She finished her doctoral dissertation titled "Comparative Analysis of Biocompatibility of Different Stomatoprothetic Acrylate Materials" at the Medical Faculty of the University of Nis in May 2011. Dr. Milena Kostić has been employed at the Clinic for Dentistry in Niš since November 2002, as a doctor at the Department of Dental Prosthetics. Since January 2007 she has been assigned to the position of a specialist of dental prosthetics.

Dr. Milena Kostić has worked at the Faculty of Medicine since 2014 as an assistant at UNO Dental Prosthetics and actively participates in the teaching of all 18 subjects of the Department of Dental Prosthetics.

She is a participant in two internal projects of the Medical Faculty in Niš "Clinical and experimental examination of the stomatogne system and modern therapeutic procedures" and "Characterization of biomaterials in the assessment of biologically beneficial interactions with cells and tissues". She is the author of a monograph of national importance: M. Kostić, N. Krunić. "Acrylic polymers in dentistry". Monograph. Naisprint, Niš, 2014.

Dr. Milena Kostić is the author and co-author of a large number of papers printed in its entirety in reviewed journals and announced at national and international conferences. She has been invited several times as a lecturer at national and international conferences. She is married and the mother of two children.